3/4 SPORT - ST KEVIN'S SWIMMING EXCHANGE

Last Friday, all boys in Years 3/4 travelled to St Kevin's for our annual Swimming exchange. Whilst there were some nerves from many BGS boys as they experienced their first taste of Interschool Sport, it was pleasing to see their willingness to challenge themselves in the pool. The cheering, camaraderie and friendly competition was great, but most pleasing was the good sportsmanship on display between the two schools.

APS SPORT REPORTS – Wednesday 26 March

6B Cricket

Today, our 6B cricket side played the second and last day of its match against Haileybury, at Berwick. The weather was fine and mostly sunny. This week, it was our turn to bat. We were chasing the opposition's 41 runs. Haileybury's bowlers had good style, but they were not consistently accurate. As a result, we managed to score 61 runs. We got five boundaries in our total and we only had about 45 minutes to bat. Sportsmanship was excellent on both sides.

By Cale.

5/6 Swimming

Today, we travelled to Geelong Grammar in Toorak to swim against Caulfield Grammar, Melbourne Grammar and Geelong Grammar in an individual swim meet. We swam over a 25m distance in freestyle, backstroke, breaststroke and butterfly. It was fantastic to see all boys upholding the BGS way in a professional manner and to witness their ability and confidence grow from week to week. I look forward to our final fixture next week where we head to Wheelers Hill.
